

One Interesting Game in Scholastic League This Week---Baldwin a Star

Central High Ready For Business Eleven

Game on Tuesday in Scholastic League Should Prove Interesting—Technical-Western Contest Friday. Other School Notes.

By BUCK HOWARD.

The schoolboy contests scheduled for the present week are the meeting of Central and Business on Tuesday, and that of Tech and Western on Friday. The game between Tech and Western is expected to result in favor of the latter. The game between Central and Business is expected to result in favor of the latter.

However, the Central-Business game on Tuesday should be well played and closely contested throughout. Although defeated in its initial game of the series, Central presented a strong and heady eleven. Its ability to handle the ball cleanly and to open up with its attack were without a doubt the real cause of its defeat. However, those who are close followers of the work of Coach Thomas are prepared to find these deficiencies rectified in Tuesday's game.

On the other hand, Business, in its victory over Western, uncovered probably the fastest team in the history of that school, and showed enough football to be considered strong opposition to the other scholastic eleven. The Stenographers have the best all-around backfield in the series, while its line will be materially strengthened by the return of Dowrick and McDunnell to the game.

Capt. Ray Wise is confident of a victory over the O. Stenographers, while Richards, the Central leader, is equally as optimistic.

Buck Wise, the speedy little halfback of the Business team, who received a men's rush over his left arm in the Western game, will be back in the game Tuesday. It was expected at first that his return would be for the remainder of the season, but it has recently been learned that the Stenographers are not to encounter such a drawback.

Although Western is not expected to win over Tech on Friday, the Red and White will be considerably strengthened with the return of Capt. O'Brien, Tech Payton, Mathews and Hume to the game. These men have been forced to look on from the side lines so far this season, having been forced out by the "bummer" rule. All of these men are apt to find places on the eleven for the remaining games.

The work of Joe Baldwin at quarter back for the Eastern eleven has been the most spectacular of the present season. Baldwin has driven his team well at all times and has also shown class in carrying the ball. In picking an all-high eleven this led will surely come in for strong consideration.

Tech defeated the Georgetown freshmen yesterday on the variety field by a score of 12 to 6. The work of Stead and Ochsenschlager, who scored the touchdowns for the Mainland Trainers, featured.

Cathedral scored a victory over the Army and Navy Prep yesterday morning on Batteries Field by 22 to 0. Brown, Stead and Northrup, for the winners, played exceptionally well, the former featuring the contest with several long runs. Ward, at left tackle, and Waters at quarter back, for Army and Navy Prep, showed class. Waters ran 15 yards through a broken field for a touchdown.

Richards getting too big. Reports from Richmond state that Alma Richards, the Olympic high jump champion, is being sought for too rapidly to permit him to remain in the United States. Richards is a champion jumper and is showing no signs of slowing down.

There is one consolation for Richards, however, should he become too heavy to compete over the high jump bar. He has become an all-around athlete of no mean ability. Richards today is one of the most all-around performers in the United States. Last week at Kansas he cleared ten feet in the pole vault, put the sixteen-pound shot over forty-three feet, did better than twenty-two feet in the hundred yard dash, and the same number in the hundred yard dash.

Richards can run a very fast sprint, 22 feet.

Rock Island declines. Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 31.—Effort of George Road, of Decatur, to interest Rock Island team in a franchise in the Three-L League here failed. The baseball public of this city still feels that it was given a bad deal by Al Traxner, president of the Three-L League and the feeling here is still strong as to have any connection with that circuit as long as Traxner is at its head.

Young Orioles win. The Young Orioles won their third successive victory yesterday when they defeated the Little Lincoln by 12 to 6. The features of the game were a 25-yard run by the Orioles' quarter back and the terrific line plunging of the Orioles' full back. The Lincoln made frequent gains by means of forward passes, but lost most of their gains when they carried the ball.

Yale runners win race. New Haven, Conn., Oct. 31.—Yale runners won the cross-country run from Princeton today, but the Tigers captured the individual prize. The score was Yale, 21; Princeton, 22. Donald S. Morrison, a Princeton junior, finished first, his time being 55:20-1-4.

John Coombs left for his home in Maine Sunday, accompanied by Dan Murphy, of the Brooklyn, Pa.; Bob Hawley, of the Philadelphia; and Jack Leno, of the party with you for two weeks along Monmouth Lake.

Two hundred and ten miles over the Quaker Mountain—this is the route taken on this season's annual endurance run of the Monmouth Club of R. L. Leno, Ma. Heavy rains had to be made to lead in condition and had to be made to lead in condition and had to be made to lead in condition.

Not in spite of this, John Coombs finished with credit. "It has to be one of the best runs I have ever made," remarked one club member.

Several new plays have been given the local club during the past week, and these will be tried out in the game today. Hard practice has been the order for the week-end, and all of the players, with the exception of Capt. Josh Leachman, will be in the game. While the injury to Leachman weakens the Vigantians to some extent, the work of the substitutes in practice warrants a chance to show their worth in this game.

A final work-out was given the local yesterday, and Coach Brown, while not holding the Riverton crew cheaply, expects a win by his crew over the New Jersey leads. The game will be called at 5 o'clock, and a large crowd from New Jersey will be on hand to witness the game.

RIVERTON TEAM HAS MANY STARS

Dave Dunn, of Yale, to Play Against Local Champions at Andrews Park.

TRIO OF PRINCETON MEN

Coach Ray Brown Expects "Big V" Eleven to Land Honors—Capt. Leachman Out of Game.

After taking Glen Warner's former pupils into camp last Sunday, the Vigantians are camping on the trail of some more college gridiron stars. The Riverton team, which goes against the Vigantians today, have embraced in their line-up several more stars of the college gridiron, namely, Dave Dunn, the crack back field man of the Yale eleven two years ago.

Not only will the Vigantians be up against a stiff proposition in this fellow Dunn, but Armstrong, Berline and Lloyd, all former students of the football game at Princeton, are in the line-up of the New Jersey team. Dave Brent of the Pennsylvania eleven, and Wright of the same university, will be along.

The Riverton team, while beaten last season in one of the best-played games seen on the Vigantian field is coming down for this game paddled to the limit. It will be mostly all college men, and the local aggregation will have to display all of their ability to come out on the long end of the score.

Fans who saw the Indians play said that the Vigantians had met the best team they could have met, but the team that will come down from New Jersey this Sunday will be of the same caliber. It is better, and Ray Brown's proteges will have to travel at the same gait that they did in the Indian game.

Several new plays have been given the local club during the past week, and these will be tried out in the game today. Hard practice has been the order for the week-end, and all of the players, with the exception of Capt. Josh Leachman, will be in the game.
